

This article, edited for length, was based on a plenary presentation at ZERO TO THREE's 1993 National Training Institute in Washington, D.C. Most of the content of this article comes from print and video materials of the Program for Infant/Toddler Care. Some statements are direct quotes from these materials. An additional resource, Caring for Infants and Toddlers in Groups: Developmentally Appropriate Practice (2003), may be ordered from the Zero to Three Bookstore.

Challenges to Quality Care

1. Group size

st s rd, and is rlm!

e(') 2 (l) 1 (l) 1 () -2 co(m)-3 de oft(r) -1 () -2 (ou(r) -1 () -2 nap.g) 2 ", t(r) -1 () -2 nap, " s(i) -1 ad Tim and then he s "m"

Two weeks later:

5. Cultural and familial continuity

