The Latin text quoted above has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the 24 graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement Oration, an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The final Latin oration was given in 1893, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Barbara Weir Boyd, Henry Winkley Professor of Latin and Greek.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:

[an ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success]

To John Baldacci, esteemed Governor; to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;
and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;
to Barry Mills, distinguished President;
to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;
in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,
the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, in the State of Maine, on the sixth day before the Kalends of June, in the 2006th year of our well-being and in the 230th year of the authority of the United States of America.

Room at the Museum of Modern Art in New York received wide acclaim. Her work may be found in the collections of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Museum of Contemporary Art in Los Angeles, and the Bowdoin College Museum of Art. The Museum of Modern Art in New York organized a major retrospective of her prints and multiples in 2003-2004, and the Monacelli Press recently published a comprehensive survey of Ms. Smith's work in conjunction with a retrospective exhibition that opened at the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art in November of 2005. She received the Skowhegan Medal for Sculpture in 2000 and has participated in the Whitney Biennial three times.

BEVERLY DANIEL TATUM
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Psychologist, educator, author, and college president Beverly Daniel Tatum is a nationally recognized authority on racial issues in America. A psychologist by training, Dr. Tatum received a B.A. from Wesleyan University in 1975, M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in clinical psychology from the University of Michigan, and an M.A. in religious studies from Hartford Seminary. She began her teaching career at the University of California at Santa Barbara, followed by several years at Westfield State College in Massachusetts, and thirteen years at Mt. Holyoke College, where she was professor, dean of the college and vice president for student affairs, and acting president. In 2002 she was named the ninth president of Spelman College, a historically black college for women located in Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Tatum's research has examined racial identity development in teens, the impact of race on classroom dynamics, and the experiences of African-American families in predominantly white communities. Her books include

ACADEMIC APPAREL

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth. Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K.C.M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C.T. Burnett

Arr. by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
